

Rocky Mountain
Association for College Admission Counseling

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

RMACAC ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2025

The 2025 RMACAC Conference "Bee Impactful" will be hosted in Salt Lake City, UT at the Hilton Salt Lake City Center

COLLEGE FAIRS

College fairs will return to Salt Lake City, UT and Albuquerque, NM this fall with the addition of a new fair in Farmington, NM to serve students from the 4 corners region.

This Spring, 3 fairs will be hosted in Arizona: Tucson, Phoenix East, and Phoenix West, and 2 fairs will be hosted in Colorado: Colorado Springs and Denver.

RMACAC ROADMAP

RMACAC's Roadmap is a one-day professional development event for high school and independent counselors to advance in their work to help students realize their full potential in the college planning process.

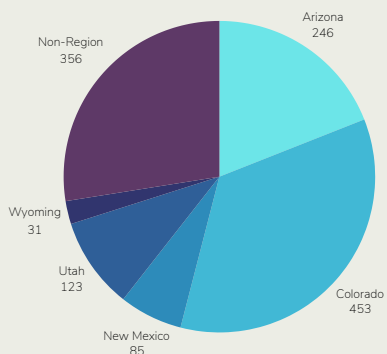

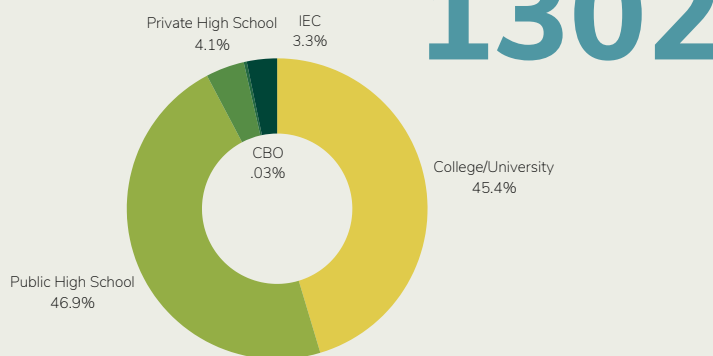

LEARN-A-LATTE

Access on-demand videos and webinars on a variety of admissions-related topics hosted by experts in the RMACAC region.

MEMBERSHIP

1302

As of Sept 1 2024

MENTORSHIP

A members-only benefit, the Mentorship program brings together new and experienced members of the counseling profession.

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS

The Government Relations Committee communicates information regarding college admission counseling to federal and state legislative bodies. It acts as a liaison to legislative committees or officers of other like-minded organizations.

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

- Quarterly newsletter
- Discounted registration rates for RMACAC events and services
- Access to Members-Only resources
- Mentorship opportunities
- Professional Development and Student Scholarships
- Job postings hosted by RMACAC

INCLUSION, DIVERSITY, EQUITY & ACCESS (IDEA)

The IDEA Committee seeks to improve and create opportunities for college access for traditionally underrepresented and underserved populations through the five-state RMACAC region.