

To our RMACAC Family,

Like many of you, we have felt a wide range of emotions as the nation has learned more about the murders of George Floyd, Ahmaud Arbery, and Breonna Taylor. Acts of injustice against Black Americans have created a decisive moment. We feel compelled to write to you now as fear, anger, and frustration are manifesting across the country in Minneapolis, Atlanta, Los Angeles, and here in the Rocky Mountain region.

RMACAC members come from every racial and ethnic background, all tiers of the socio-economic spectrum, represent the entire range of gender and sexual identities, and span in age from recent college graduates to retirees. While we cannot expect to agree on every aspect of this emotionally charged issue, we can agree that black lives matter.

As admission professionals, we must continue to learn about this issue with the many resources available. This is a call to action for every one of us to do better, to speak up, and to be part of the solution. We encourage you to do something today to further the cause of equality and justice.

DONATE

- Black Visions Collective Movement
- Color of Change
- Reclaim The Block

EDUCATE

- 1 Angry Black Man
- Anti-Racism for Kids 101: Starting to talk about Race
- Anti-Racism Resource Guide

FOLLOW

- @blkivesmatter
- @colorofchange
- @eji_org
- @showingupforracialjustice

We are calling on each of you to connect with your fellow RMACAC members from backgrounds, experiences, and places different than your own. Watch out for each other, support one another, and practice self-care. If we can assist you and your students during this difficult time, please reach out.

We are committed to being a part of the solution. Thank you for being a part of the RMACAC family.

Dr. Jill Corbin, President, jcorbin@denveracademy.org

Derek Faasse, President-Elect, Derek.Faasse@ua.edu

Damien Bracey, Past-President, damien.bracey@dysart.org